

WHAT A STORY:

Floral Gold 3 goes worldwide!

I am so very proud of the success at my solo exhibition. Cecilia Koo of Galerie Koo in Hong Kong made all this possible and created a most unusual, contemporary and dream-come-true story. My painting “Floral Gold 3” travelled the world. From the charming town of St.Gallen, where I live and work, to Asia’s megacity Hong Kong, where my works are held on show in the Vogue Building, and from there to its new home in Washington D.C., where love, courage and passion for art form the base of a long term relationship in more than one way. – The collector now chose online, but had come across some of my paintings in December 2018, during ART MIAMI when Galerie Koo introduced some of my works at the related PULSE ART FAIR.

Whether “Floral Gold 3” went all the way east, or travelled east first, and then west a long way back, and possibly even flew over my studio again, who knows? - I feel so privileged, happy and inspired and wish my wonderfully mind-space opening collector a multitude of moments of delight when indulging my work.
