Selected Works for You

This is for you - Let's spark magic

Christmas is a season of light — filled with anticipation, warmth and joyful gatherings. Sabeth Holland's Christmas Collection captures this spirit with remarkable sensitivity, opening a window onto winter landscapes, glowing villages, shimmering trees and skies full of stars.

From Blooming Ice, Discdelight to Joy and Hope, and now the debut of her Dreams series, each piece is a unique invitation to bring colour, energy, and festive spirit into your home or collection.

Each artwork carries both colour and poetry — artistic whispers that illuminate the season and transform any space with beauty, joy, and lasting inspiration.

Choose the piece that speaks to you — and let Sabeth Holland's art spark magic into your home and enrich your collection.
